

Mountain Culture
at The Banff Centre
presents

Endangered Dance of the Himalaya

The Himalayas are a treasure trove of ancient dance traditions. These traditional mountain dance forms – rich in cultural, spiritual, and historic significance – are threatened with extinction. Using images gathered in the Himalayas, Asian dance specialist Joseph Houseal will explore the sacred monastic dancing of Tibetan Buddhism, called Cham.

Houseal received a 2002 Banff Mountain Grant for his ongoing work in documenting and helping to preserve these traditions.

Presentation:
Thursday May 1, 2003
7:30 pm

Max Bell Auditorium
$5.00. Free to Mountain Culture members

Exhibition:
April 11 - May 2, 2003
Max Bell Building Lobby

Banff Centre Box Office 403.762.6301